WIN ON OVER LOSING

Brian,
To a really nice and sweet guy, I will always remember. Stay as nice as you are now and you will have plenty of friends. Remember all the good times we've had, like the times I came to see you at the deli in Kroger, and all our little talks in the halls at school. Remember the C.Y.F. parties and all the great times. I wish you all the luck in the world now and after you graduate. Sorry I took up so much room, but I could have even used more.

Friends always,
Debbie Fritton
(Bumper!)

1975
Harrodsburg High School
Harrodsburg, Kentucky

We are opening this year with a search for answers to the most basic questions that we are not the first to ask: "Who am I?", "Why am I here?", "Where am I going after this?"

This yearbook is a portrayal of what we mean to ourselves and what we hope to mean to others.

The graduating class of 1975 is lucky to have as its sponsors: Mr. Joedy Sharpe, Mrs. Ruth Baell, Mrs. Edna Knight, Mrs. Margaret Helton. The Seniors wish to express deep appreciation for all of the sponsors' help and guidance.

Under the leadership of these four people: Jeff Coy--President, Dwight Conder--Vice-President, Lolita Short--Secretary, and Wayne Taylor --Treasurer, the Senior class successfully completes its final year at H. H. S.

Who was that masked man?

As usual the Seniors are behind!

I like you-You're Different.

She will wake and remember and understand.

I gotta be me!

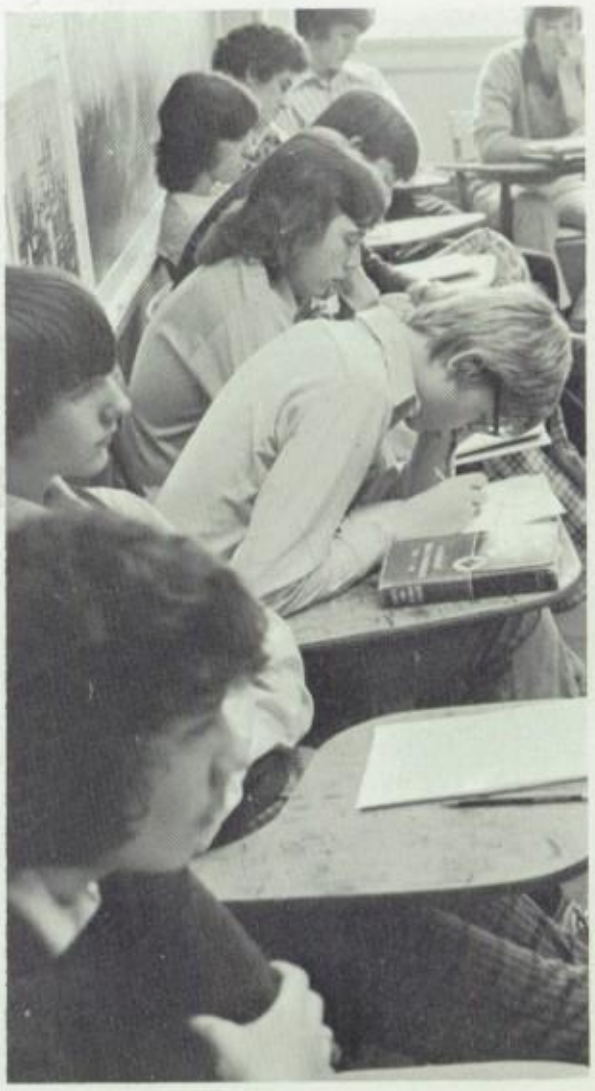
If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again.

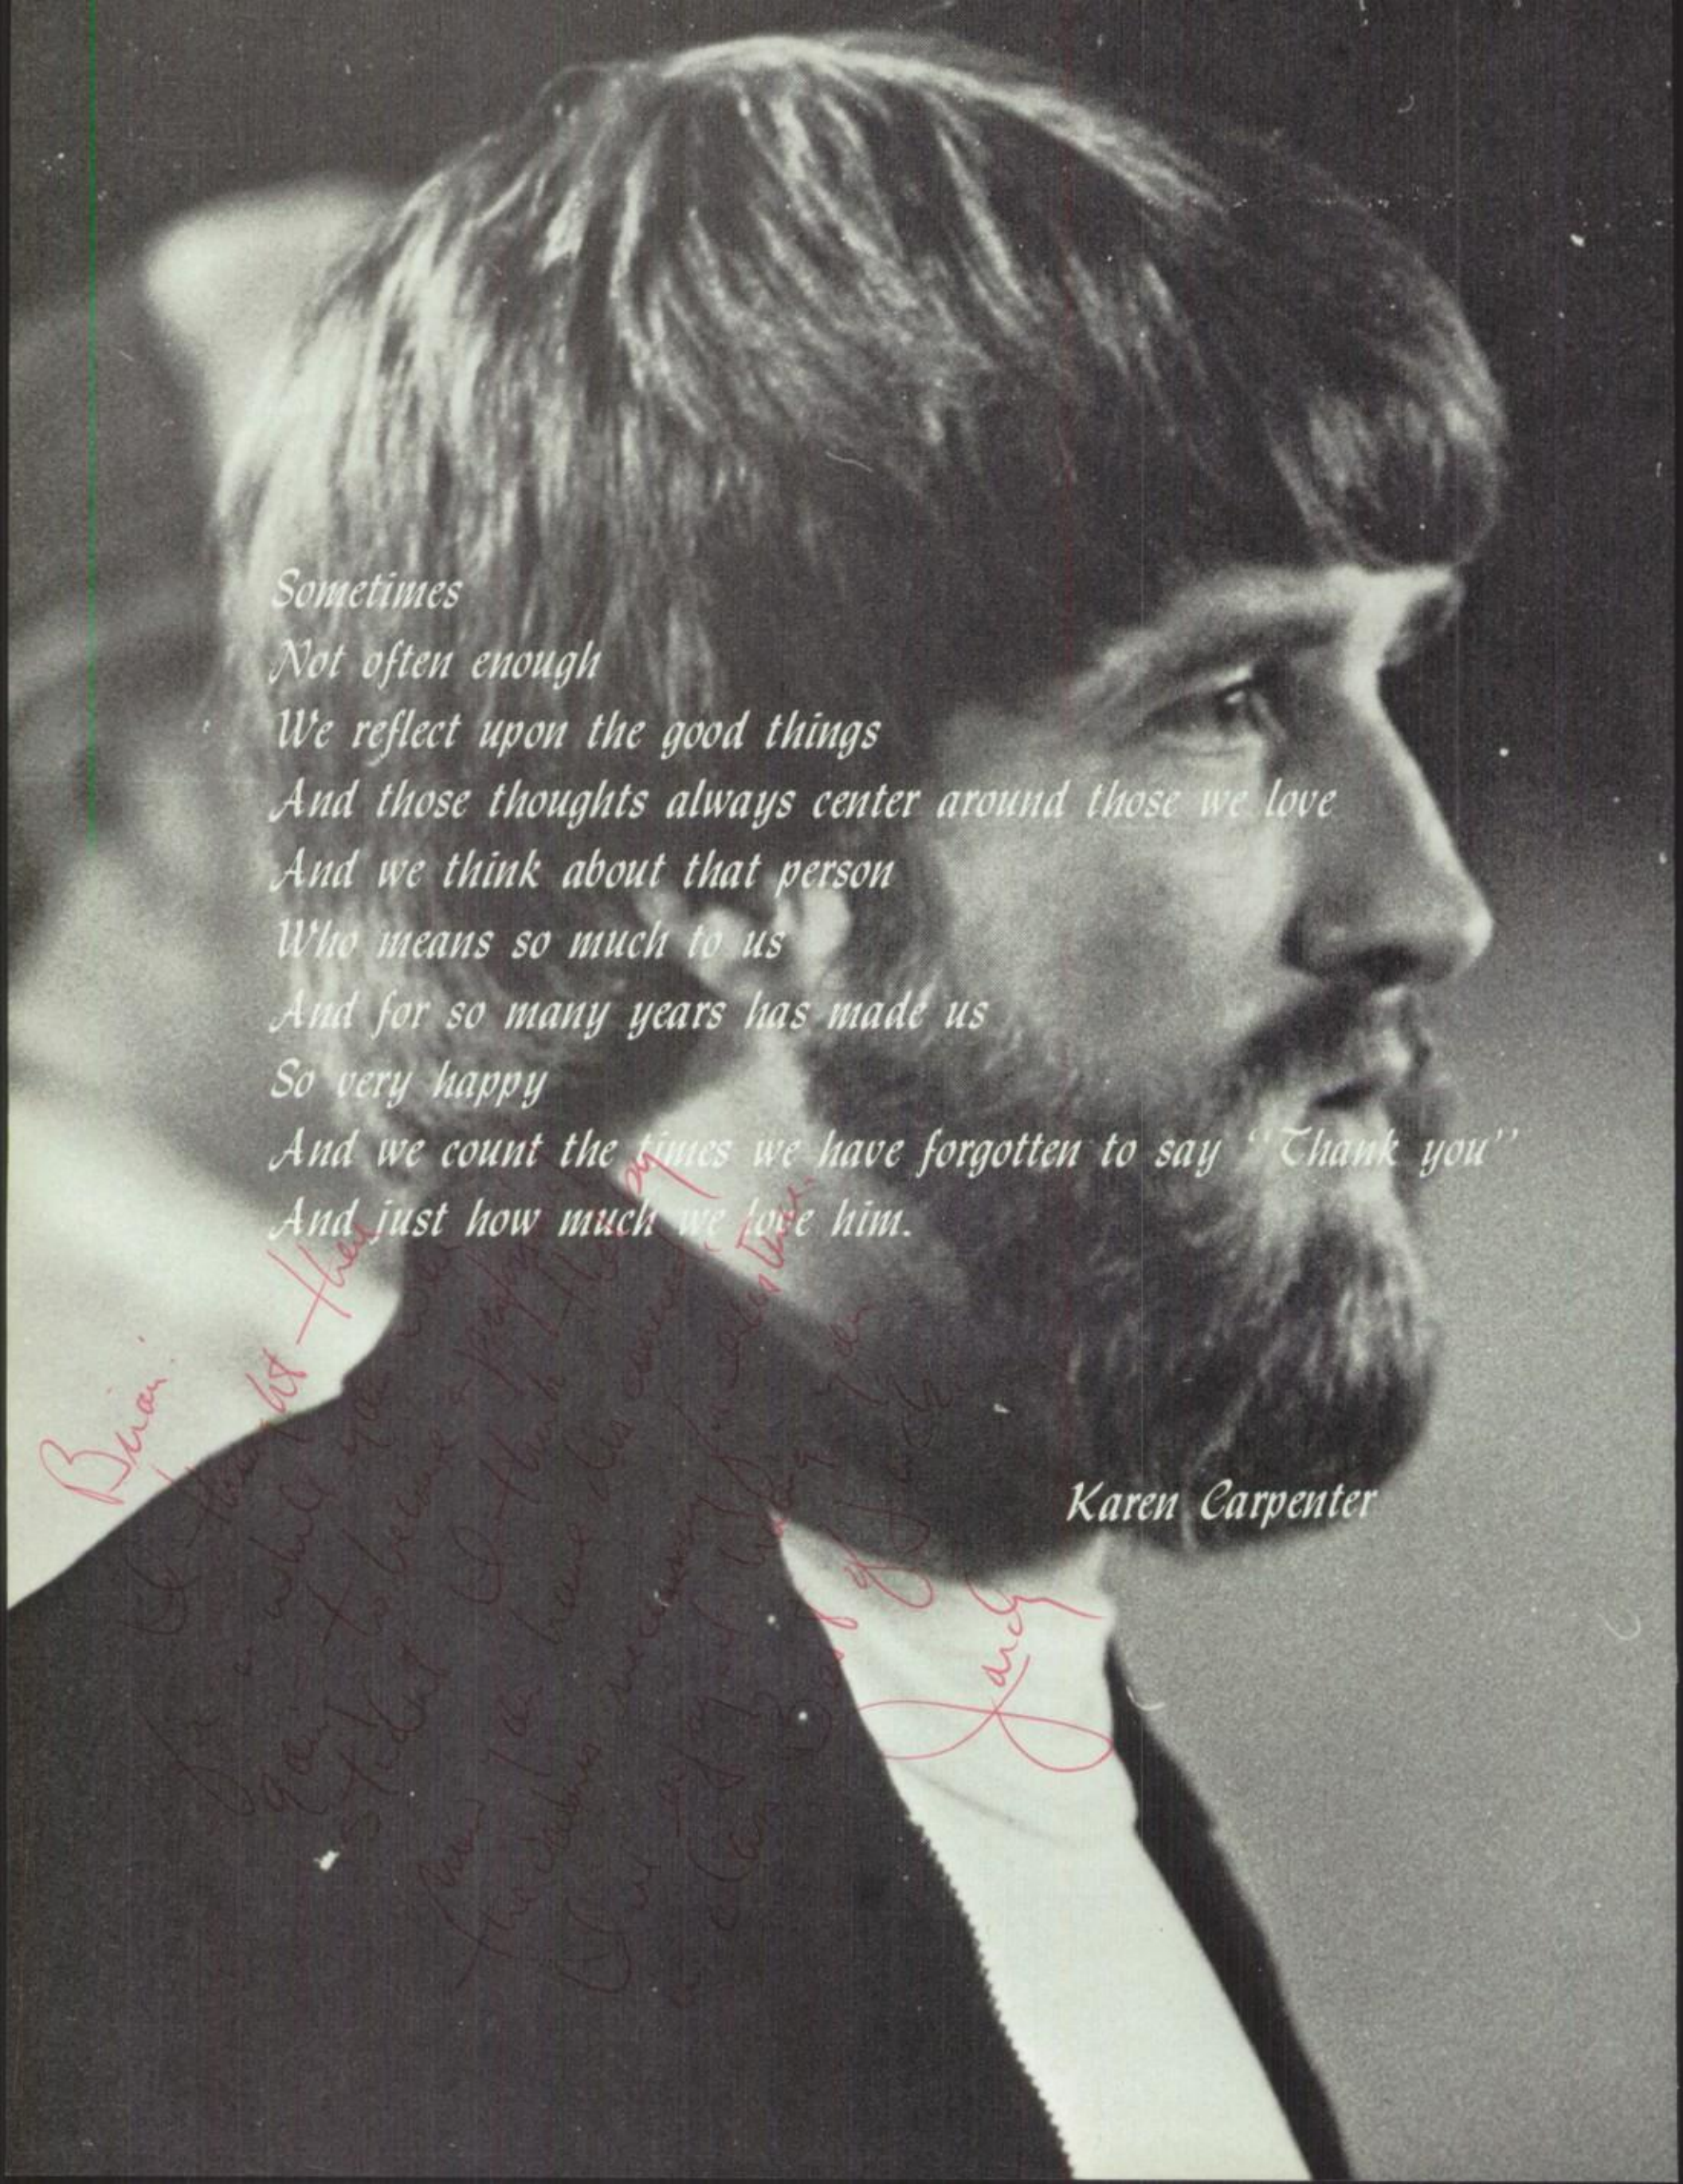
But we've always done it this way.

Hang in there, baby!

Today was meant for me.

Sometimes we sits and thinks and sometimes we just sits.





Sometimes
Not often enough
We reflect upon the good things
And those thoughts always center around those we love
And we think about that person
Who means so much to us
And for so many years has made us
So very happy
And we count the times we have forgotten to say "Thank you"
And just how much we love him.

Hey, you with the camera!

Oh, I'm sorry, I must have the wrong door.

She must be seen to be appreciated.

I didn t take art for nothing!

Maybe if I sleep on it, it will sink in.

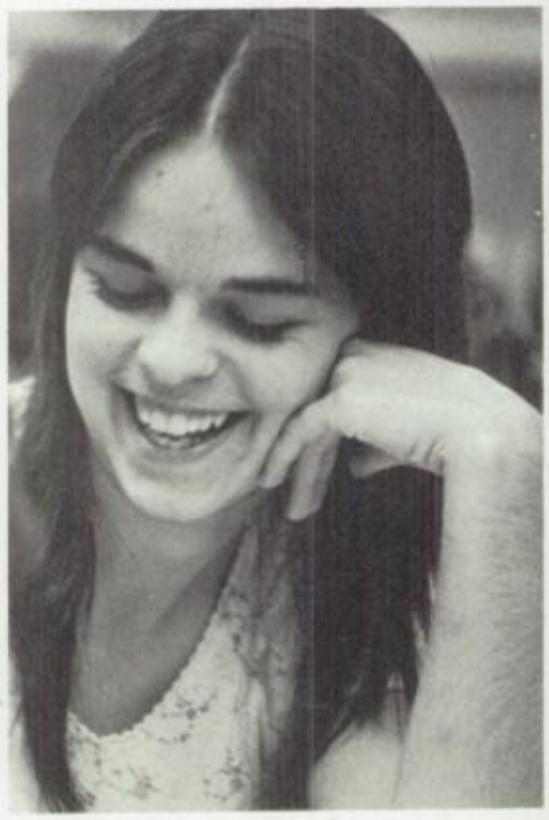
Who says we're Silly Sophomores?

Wonder what she's so happy about?!



It's not as easy as it looks.

He's not going to get my answers this time.

Sure wish he'd use Listerine!

Being in a hurry is one of the tributes he pays to life.

Apparently there is nothing that cannot happen.

Let us pray

Tobacco is a dirty weed, I like it.

WHICH IS WITCH?

Is she or isn't she?

She is?

She is!!!

DEFINITELY she is!!!

Who, me?

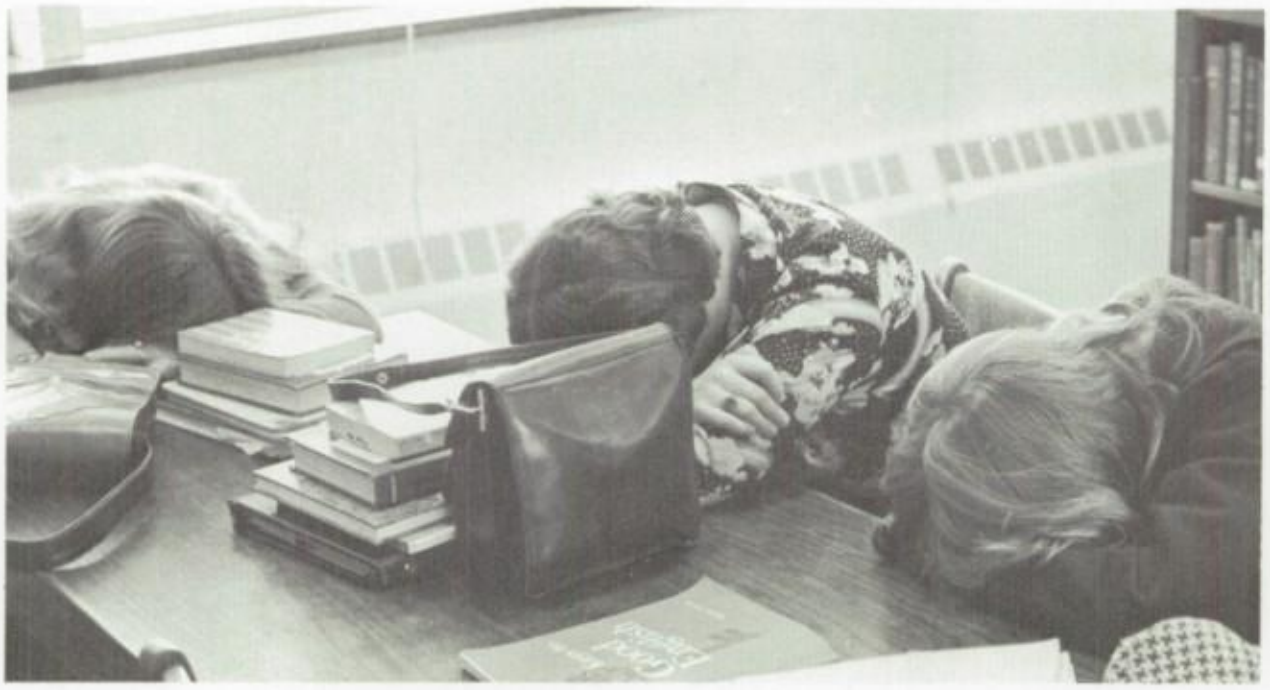
All the world is queer save me and thee; and sometimes I think thee is a little queer.

Hey, where did those cheat notes go?

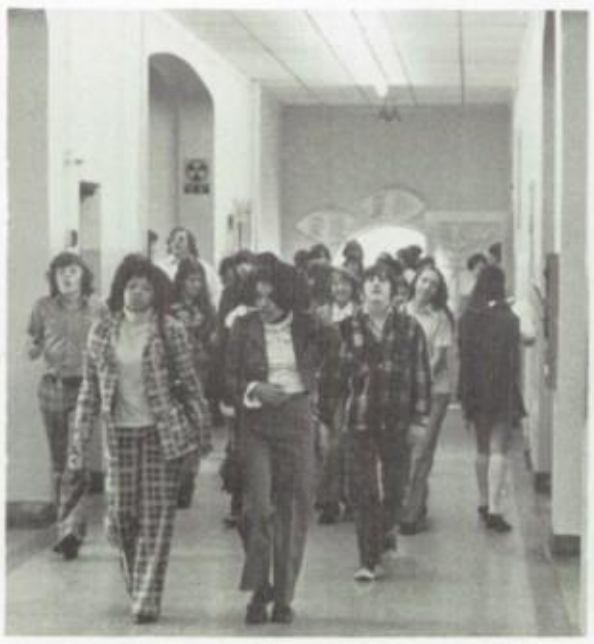
Maybe if I throw them in and slam it . . .

Be mad then!

If you don't like it, you can just leave.



And on the seventh day they rested.



They're off and running!

Our chief want in life is somebody who shall make us do what we can.

Now you see it, now you don't.

Teach the best; shoot the rest.

Oh well, back to the drawing board!

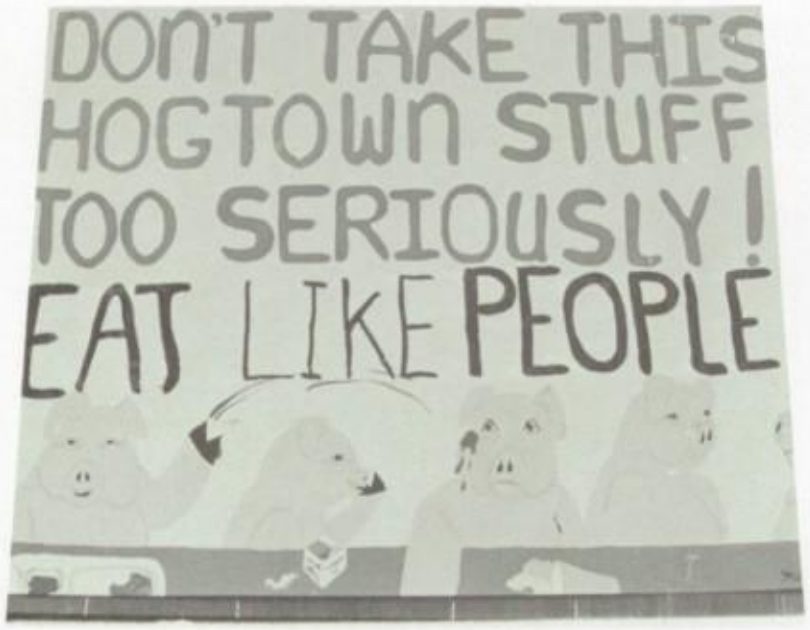
Jerry, where are you? I'm cold!

Now you tell me!!!

If I've told you once, I've told you a thousand times . . .

Caught in the act . . .

You wouldn't dare!



Some people will do anything for attention.

Don't raise your fists at me, boy!

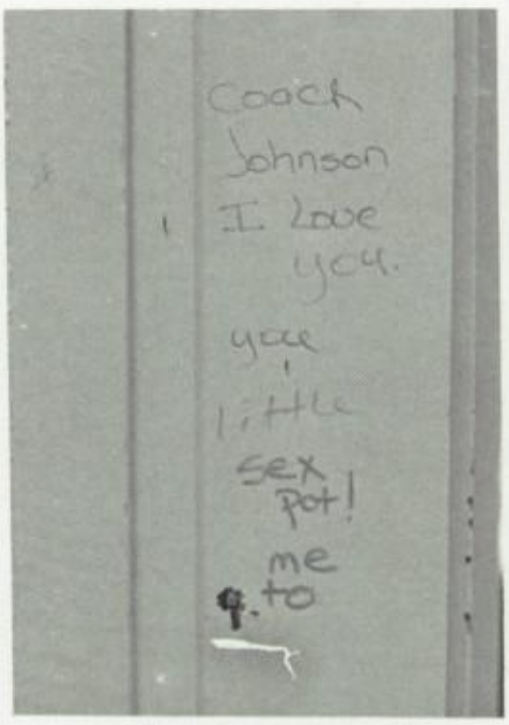
Nancy is behind in her reading.

United we stand,
divided we

Fall

Who says his class is boring?

Hurry, before he gets back!

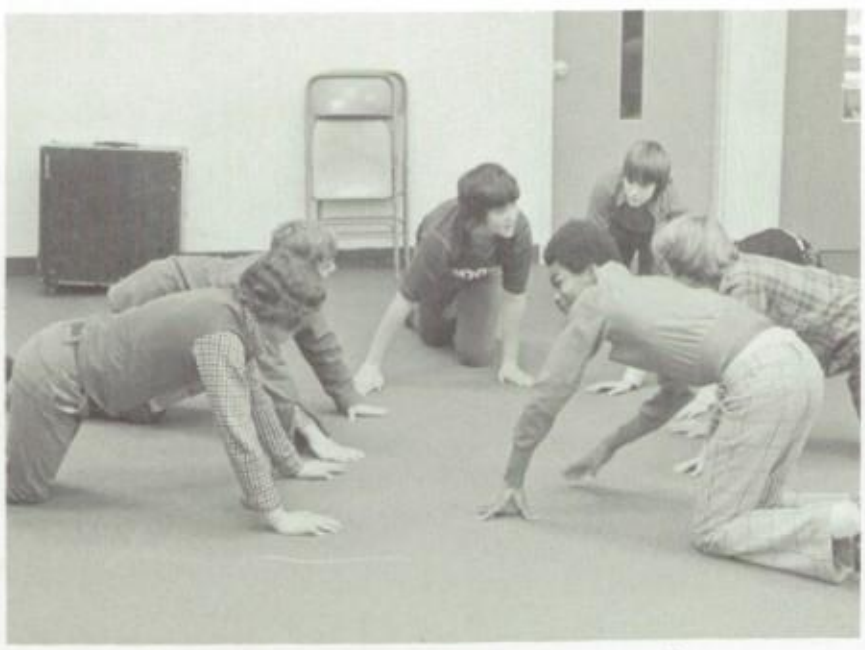


Some of 'em have it, and some of 'em don't.

I was only late for one class, now I'm late for two!

There will be no congregating in the hall. Congregating, what's that?

Some people run from their problems. I hide.



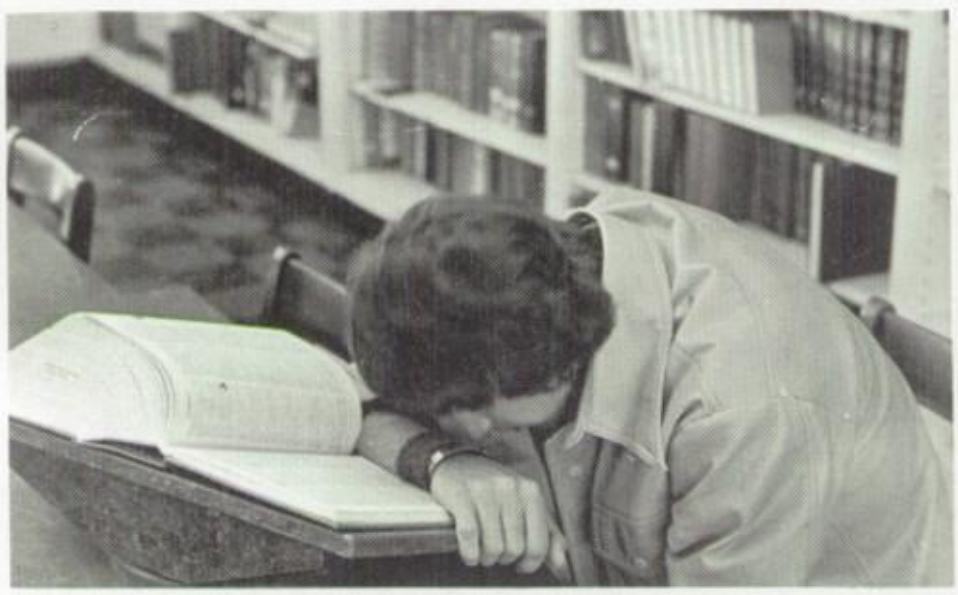
Aren't your crawling years over?

Who can sleep in this weather?

7th and 8th Grade

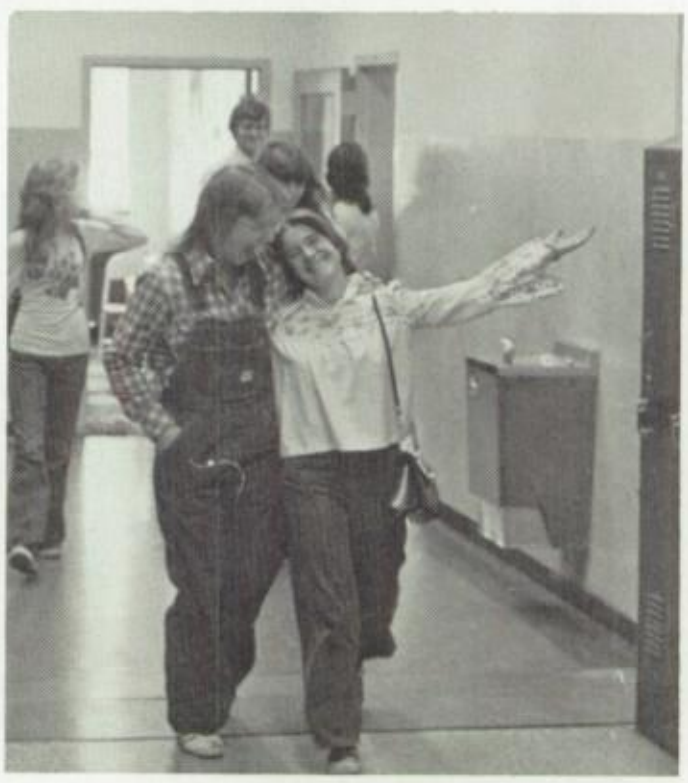
A penny for your thoughts.

What she doesn't know won't hurt her!



She said to get our heads in a book!

Wonder if they have a doggie bag?



I can't believe we got away with it! !

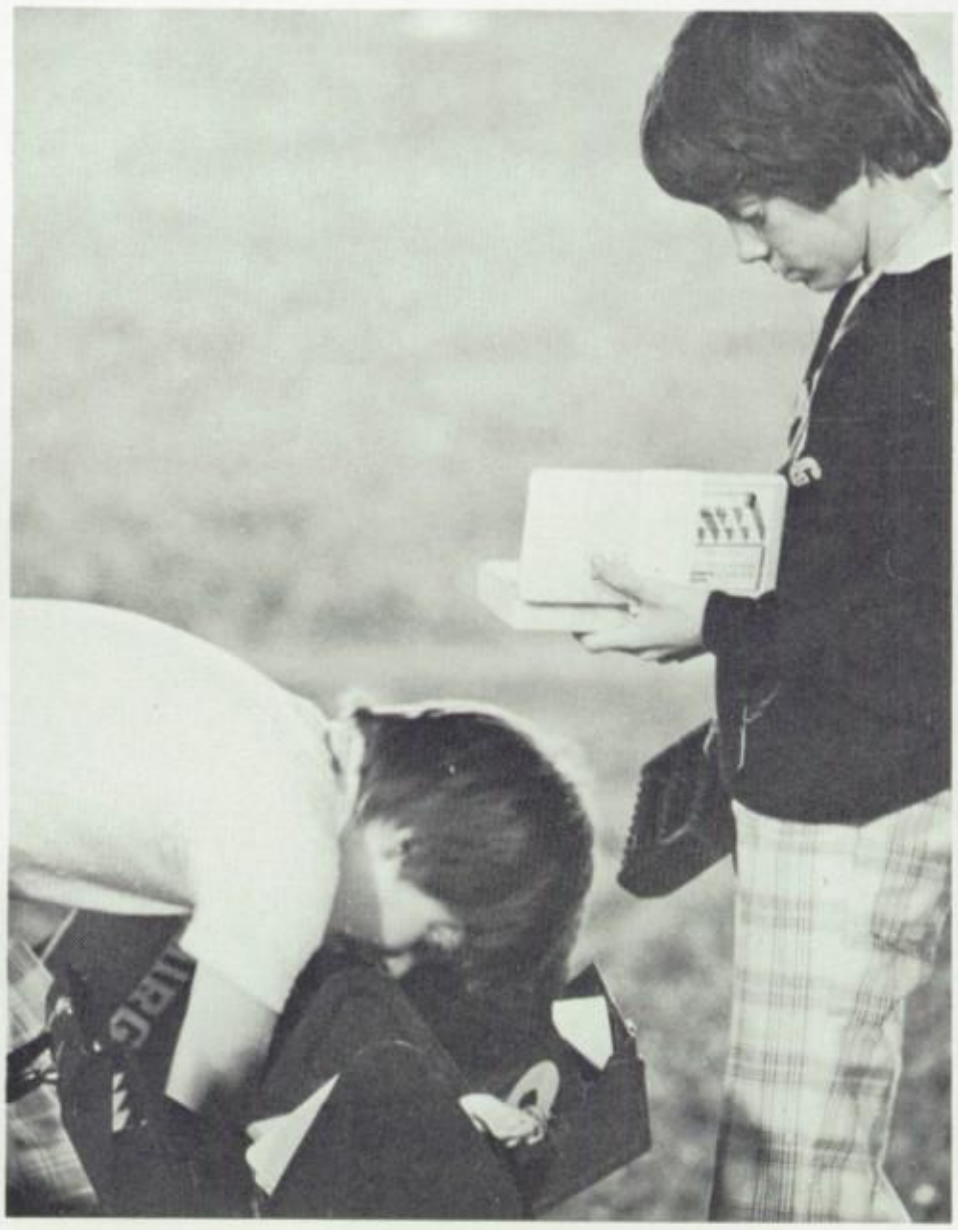
HARRODSBURG
PIONEERS

Broadus



The Harrodsburg High School Football Team displayed one of the greatest seasons in the history of the school this year. The Pioneer's record of 11 wins against 1 loss is a good indication of the effort put forth by the players, managers, cheerleaders, teachers, student body, marching band, the people of Harrodsburg, and the coaching staff.

Although the Pioneers were knocked out of district play by a heart-crushing defeat at Bardstown, they were able, for the third time in the history of the school, to go on and win the Central Kentucky Conference. The Pioneers also had the distinction of being the winner of the post-season C.K.C. Bowl, and in that game the Pioneer squad of 1974 was the first team ever at Harrodsburg to defeat the Danville Admirals in a football contest.

Surely this team, in the eyes of many, will be one of the greatest that ever played football at Harrodsburg High School.

Reporting the school happenings this year at H.H.S. is the 1975 H.H.S. newspaper staff. With Jennie Russell and Nancy Anness as co-editors and Keith Rightmyer as business manager, the newspaper is sure to be a big success. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Russell.

Newspaper Staff

The System Suffers a Breakthrough—Journalism On the Rebound!

H.H.S. Revives Newspaper

Hogtown, Kentucky--The 1974-75 school year at Harrodsburg High School adds to its curriculum a newspaper staff. Under the direction of Mrs. Joe Russell, Jennie Russell, Nancy Anness, and Keith Rightmyer impress upon their fellow editors the importance of recording the action at H.H.S. accurately. Journalism at Harrodsburg High School has been dormant for the past two years, but a new spirit of involvement demands student body action. In the news are student-faculty conflicts, sports action, club plans, and results of new Student Council proposals. Tradition is restored to H.H.S.

The beginning efforts of the newspaper are characterized by sketches and mimeograph paper instead of photographs and newsprint. The standard price is twenty-five cents in the hopes that the paper's growing account will accomodate the standardizations of good journalism.

The first actions made by the staff included a contest to name the paper. Roger Steele, a freshman, submitted, "The Pioneer Gazette", which was chosen by the staff to be the best entry. Roger receives a free copy of every edition of the paper. Welcome to the world of journalism, "The Pioneer Gazette".
